✓ Program times need to be pretty flexible according to your crowd. In other words ... if there's a good crowd ... do a program. Just be sure not to do a program too soon or wait too long to do a program since you'll want your guests to have lots of time to eat and enjoy the games and booths. The in-between times are also ideal for your shotgun witnesses to visit with your guests. It's a recreational event designed to build a bridge to lost persons. Give your people enough time to get to know guests.

* The strategy for your schedule needs to be substantially different if you anticipate more than 500 guests. Call for additional information on strategies for larger Evangelistic Block Parties.
